

PRESS NOTE

RASHTRIYA KARMAYOGI JAN SEVA DRIVE CONDUCTED AT NEC

13th November 2025: The North Eastern Council (NEC) successfully organized the Rashtriya Karmayogi Jan Seva Drive, with the active participation of 143 Officers and Staff of North Eastern Council (NEC), North East Cane and Bamboo Development Council (NECBDC) and North Eastern Region Community Resource Management Society (NERCORMPS).

The training programme, conducted in six batches, aimed to strengthen the knowledge, skills, and competencies of the workforce in alignment with the objectives of Mission Karmayogi. The sessions emphasized key aspects such as empathy, innovation, and continuous learning as essential pillars of modern public administration.

The initiative sought to empower participants with the necessary tools and insights to deliver efficient, responsive, and citizen-centric public services. As part of the programme, staff members engaged in a series of interactive and practical learning sessions, fostering meaningful discussions and promoting a culture of good governance within the organization.

The interactive sessions were also attended by the Secretary, NEC, along with officials from NEC, NECBDC, and NERCORMP, reflecting the collective commitment to strengthening administrative capacities across the institutions.

The North Eastern Council (NEC) is a statutory advisory body constituted under the North Eastern Council Act, 1971 for the economic and social development of the North Eastern Region. Having its headquarters in Shillong and functions under the Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region (DONER), Government of India, over the last fifty years, NEC has been instrumental in setting in motion a new economic endeavor aimed at removing the basic handicaps that stood in the way of normal development of the region and has ushered in an era of new hope in this backward area full of great potentialities.