

PRESS RELEASE

NEC Unveils Yearbook 2026 Showcasing Regional Progress and Vision

The Yearbook 2026 of the North Eastern Council was formally launched on 30th March 2026 at the NEC Conference Hall in a dignified ceremony attended by distinguished Member of the Council and senior officials.

The Yearbook was officially unveiled by Shri Tenzing Norbu Thongdok, Hon'ble Member of the North Eastern Council. The event was graced by the presence of Shri Satinder Kumar Bhalla, Secretary, NEC, who joined the Hon'ble Member in launching the publication.

Also present on the occasion were key senior officials of the Council, including Shri Som Kamei, Planning Adviser; Shri Thanglemlian, Financial Adviser and Smt. Sherry Lalthangzo, Economic Adviser, Directors and other officials of NEC were also in attendance, reflecting the collective effort behind the publication.

The Yearbook 2026 highlights the achievements, initiatives, and developmental progress undertaken by the North Eastern Council across the region. It serves as a comprehensive document showcasing NEC's ongoing commitment to regional planning, infrastructure development, and socio-economic growth in the North Eastern States.

Speaking on the occasion, the dignitaries emphasized the importance of such publications in documenting institutional progress, enhancing transparency, and providing valuable insights for policymakers, researchers, and stakeholders.

The launch event concluded with appreciation for the collaborative efforts of all departments and officials involved in compiling the Yearbook, reaffirming NEC's vision for inclusive and sustainable development in the North Eastern Region.